GRADUATION CLASS OF 2017

Dear Parents,

As the end of the third quarter comes to a close and winter finally lets us out of its grasp, I wanted to take a moment to thank all of you for helping promote the learning and academic success of each student at GHS. Our combined efforts to form a community built on respect and to further academic excellence have met with success this year and I really look forward to continued gains for the remainder of the school year.

I would ask each and every family to remind their student(s) of the importance of finishing the school year strong. Success during the final quarter, on the AP exams, the Aspire testing for freshmen and sophomores and on the final exams is vital to credit attainment and also overall grade point average. When the weather does actually change, it will be tempting to be distracted by thoughts of enjoying the outdoors and the nice weather. This will be especially true for seniors. Please encourage your child(ren) to maintain a healthy balance between work and fun throughout the remainder of this school year.

For parents of seniors, I would remind you of our very important graduation meeting on April 10th at 6:00 pm in the PAC. I have a great deal of very important information to provide to all regarding the end of the year. I want to discuss the contract that is required to participate in the graduation ceremony and Josten's will be on site to hand out gowns and other graduation items that were ordered.

The change in the weather will also signal that it is time for our battle with the dress code to re-ignite. Please insure that your son or daughter is dressed appropriately for school when they leave in the morning. It is always our hope to prepare students to be successful in life and part of that is helping them dress in a way that would be acceptable in any work environment. I thank you in advance for your assistance with this.

On behalf of the staff at Greenfield High School I would like to thank you for your continued partnership as we make every effort to meet high academic expectations and be kind, empathetic members of a school community. Have a very safe, enjoyable and relaxing spring. Go Hustlin' Hawks!

Sincerely,

Paul Thusius

All students are expected to be in their scheduled classes during exam week. The school does not have the authorization to excuse students from a school day or part of a school day even during study halls. If you have a study hall you have the following options:

1. Report to the cafeteria for the entire exam period and continue to prepare for exams.
2. Report to the media center for the entire exam period and continue to prepare for exams.
3. Normally, GHS requires that parents call the attendance office to report an absence and/or excuse their student from school. However, during the forthcoming exam schedule an exception is being made. Students need to be in their exam, the cafeteria or the media center on time because hallway traffic may be disruptive to students taking exams. Students who have two exams on a single day are not permitted to leave Greenfield High School during the snack break.

The German National Honor Society just recently held its induction ceremony. The ceremony was held on March 1, 2017. These new and current inductees have demonstrated skill in the German language and the desire to continue learning about the German language and culture. The following are newly inducted students and those who received their second and third year pins. We are happy to have them in GNHS.

The induction ceremony consisted of the inductees reciting the GNHS vows and ceremonial lighting of the candles.

Frau Beier (German teacher at GMS) and Jacob Bradford (GHS Class of 2014) collaborated to deliver a special presentation via video. Jacob was once a member of GNHS and is currently studying abroad in Freiburg, Germany through the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He shared his experiences with German beyond high school and encouraged students to continue their language study and study abroad. Cory Walloch, a 3rd year GNHS member, said, "We are certain many others feel the same way about the video."

In addition to our guest presentation, there were some performances by some of our members that showcased the German language and culture. Rachel Butargabe recited Wolf Biermann's poem, "Tausend Menschen sind es, die die Welt verändern." Emily Szymanski led all of the GNHS students in the enthusiastic recitation of the poem "Der alte Mann" by Josef Guggenmos. This was a poem GHS German students fondly remember from middle school. In addition to reciting poetry, Karina Polacek and Danielle Hoffman sang "O du mein Heimatland". Lastly, a group of 11 Greenfield students and their teacher danced the Sauerländer, a traditional German dance. This was truly a wonderful celebration of the German language and culture.

We look forward to the educational opportunities GNHS provides as well as the continued involvement of all its members. We also want to thank everyone who attended to show their support for the inductees and the organization. Vielen Dank!

A group of students dances onto a stage to lively folk music. Their smiles are just as bright as they gather into a pattern facing each other, and start to twirl. They move in a blur of red shirts as the music picks up speed.

Who are they? These students are part of the Deutscher Volkstanzkreis, or “German Folk Dancing Group”, a newly formed club at Greenfield High School!

The dance described above is the Sauerländer. It was recently performed at “Salute to the Arts”, the talent show at GHS. The group also performed the dance at the induction ceremony for the German National Honor Society.

The Sauerländer was performed by ten students: Sam Behling, Audrey Beauchamp, Isabella Lubotsky, Ellie Krasovich, Rachel Butargabe, Jack Tremarello, Eric Effinger, Brian Picon, Julieona Wiza, and Julianna Schmidt. Eric Effinger actually taught the Sauerländer to the group, since he is in a German dance club outside of school!

The Deutscher Volkstanzkreis is planning on doing two dances for Culture Night on April 28, 2017. They are planning on doing the Sauerländer again, and they are just beginning to learn a second one. If anyone is interested in joining them, they are highly encouraged! No dance experience is necessary, and students do not have to be in the German program.

The Hustlin' Hawks are excited to get the 2017 season underway!! Our roster is heavy with seniors and juniors this season. Our team will have a tremendous amount of competition this year. This year, the team returns with 6 players that lettered during the past two seasons. The team returns 3 seniors who lettered: Andrew Braatz, Chris Mooney and Zac Semancik and junior, Lazaro Acosta. The team is still young though, and will need to work hard and be smart to build on last season's results. I have much higher expectations for our players and team this season.

The girls' softball team has high hopes entering the 2017 season. Coming off consecutive Woodland Conference Championships for the 2015 & 2016 seasons, the team hopes to maintain its championship ways. The Wisconsin Fastpitch Softball Coaches Association also ranked the team in the top of the state for the past two years. The team returns 10 players from last season, including many starters, which bodes well for the 2017 campaign. 2016 Woodland All-Conference players returning include Taylor Johnson, Olivia Kelly, Alyssa Vilkoski, and Hannah Ruffert. After losing two time All-State pitcher Bella Matthias to graduation, the pitching duties will be handled by Junior Alyssa Vilkoski and Sophomore Paige Kowalewski this season. Other team members not previously mentioned include Seniors Jessica Cheske & Lexi Vilkoski; Juniors Haley Hoedel & Regan Schultz, Sophomore Amanda Polachek; and Freshmen Allison Mech & Emma Hoedel.

The 2017 Track and Field season opens up on Saturday, March 25th at UW- Parkside. We are very excited to see some of the returning athletes as well as a handful of new ones compete for the first time this year. Coming off of a successful 2016 season, the bar has been set even higher for this season. Sophomore Emma Graetz (triple jump), junior Billy Pitroski (200m) and senior Deven Jakubowski (110m/300m hurdles), as well as a handful of other runners and throwers, all placed high in their perspective events at the end of the season. With the addition of some new talented athletes, it will be exciting to see how the team progresses throughout the season. The outdoor season officially opens on Tuesday, April 11th at Germantown.

We hope by now you've had a chance to join us at one of our fun, free performances. But if you haven't, you're in luck – we have one more concert in store for you this season! Don't miss out on this great experience as the Greenfield Concert Band debuts its Concert in the Park, Friday, May 12th at the Konkell Park Amphitheater, 5151 W. Layton Ave.

The city's newest outdoor venue lets you pull up a lawn chair or blanket, sit back, and relax with the same quality entertainment we bring to our indoor performances. We will also have treats courtesy of Classy Girl Cupcakes and beverages available for sale at this fun new addition to our concert season.

As always, Greenfield Concert Band performances are FREE and open to the public. Worried about the weather? Stay tuned to Facebook.com/GreenfieldConcertBand for concert updates. In case of rain or cold, we'll be moving to our wonderful winter venue, the Greenfield Performing Arts Center.

Spring is barely here, but fall will be here before you know it. Don't forget to practice! Rehearsals – and auditions – for our milestone fifth season resume Thursday, September 7. Visit our website or email info@greenfieldconcertband.org to get your audition time in the books.

We hope to see you soon!
